About Us

It was in the year 2015 when our company, Kamakshi Poles Corporation was conceived to cater to the demands of High Mast Lights, Iron Gate, J Bolt, MS Tubular Pole, LED Street Light Pole and many others in the same category. It has been over five years to our emergence and we are thriving and climbing success ladder as a progressive manufacturer and wholesaler in the segment. We will continue to excel in our chosen field by not only focusing on providing quality products to clients but excellent services too. Our clientele has considerably increased in the gone few years and we are still counting. We have been successful in forging strong relationships with clients based on approach and techniques which we tweak as per their expectations and considerations.

Avoiding delays in production and delivery, we have come across as a dependable entity amid our industry counterparts.
